CONSENT FOR ACCESS TO PROPERTY

Name: Questar Pipeline Company
Address of Property: 1601 East 1700 South
Naples, Utah

Questar Pipeline Company (Questar) consents to officers, employees, and authorized representatives of the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) entering and having continued access to Questar's property at 1601 East 1700 South, Naples, Utah, for the following purposes:

- A. The taking of such soil, groundwater, water, and air samples as may be determined to be necessary;
- B. The sampling of any solids or liquids stored or disposed of on site;
- C. Other actions related to the investigation of surface and subsurface contamination; and,
- D. The taking of a response action including site stabilization, the removal of oil, hazardous materials, or hazardous substances, material containment, and other actions deemed necessary to protect human health and the environment.

EPA has represented to Questar that these actions by EPA are undertaken pursuant to EPA's response and enforcement responsibilities under the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. §§ 1321 et seq. (CWA) as amended by the Oil Pollution Act of 1990, 33 U.S.C. §§ 2701 et seq.

EPA has represented to Questar that its contractors at the site are required to carry comprehensive insurance policies to cover claims for personal injury, death or property damage to third parties and it will, upon request, provide to Questar certificates of that insurance.

This Consent for Access to Property shall remain in effect for a primary term of 24 months commencing March 1, 1994, and month to month thereafter until terminated by Questar Pipeline
